

Bruxism

is defined as “a repetitive jaw-muscle activity characterized by clenching or grinding of the teeth and/or by bracing (strengthening) or thrusting of the mandible.

Based upon a 24 h, bruxism has been divided into

- sleep bruxism (SB –occurring during sleep)
- awake bruxism (AB –occurring during